

April 2011 Autism Awareness Month

Photo by Stacey Orzell

Get the Facts

Use and share the following
FREE autism resources.

New York's Initiative for Adults and Children on the Autism Spectrum (NYacts) provides reliable, up-to-date information about autism spectrum disorders and the many supports and services available from New York State to assist individuals and families.
<http://www.opwdd.ny.gov/nyacts/>

Free Autism Awareness poster and brochure from New York State Department of Health Early Intervention (available in English and Spanish)
http://www.health.ny.gov/forms/order_forms/eip_publications.pdf

Free resources to help families identify early signs of autism from the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
<http://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/autism/index.html>

Helping Libraries Welcome People on the Autism Spectrum
<http://www.thejointlibrary.org/autism>

