Clinton County Health Department Press Release

"Clinton County Continues to Offer Free H1N1 Public Vaccination Clinics" February 18, 2010

Public Health officials continue to stress the importance of the public being vaccinated for H1N1. The vaccine is now available in ample supply for all age groups in our community and the final H1N1 public clinic schedule has been set.

The H1N1 vaccination is FREE!

Please dress for easy access to your upper arm if you will be attending an H1N1 clinic.

H1N1 Clinics are open to all Ages! Children 17 and younger must be accompanied by a parent/legal guardian.
