

WELL CHILD CLINIC PROGRAM

The Clinton County Well Child Clinic Program (WCC)

Well Child Clinic [WCC] provides comprehensive preventive care for infants up to 24 months of age.

Parenting information and health guidance is also offered on topics such as safety, dental care, child growth, development, behavior, and nutrition. Re-certification of WIC participants can be done every six months up to the age of five. Clinics are staffed by nurses and nurse practitioners.

What Services Are Available?

Health History

Developmental Milestone Screening and Review

Nutritional Status

Height and weight

Physical Exam

Lead Screening

Hemoglobin/Hematocrit (Hgb/HCT) testing

Required Immunizations

When and Where are the Clinics?

Currently, the Well Child Clinic is held on a monthly basis at the Clinton County Health Department at 133 Margaret Street Plattsburgh, NY.

Who is Eligible?

This clinic is open to all county residents aged 2-24 months and WIC participants under five years of age

How Much Does it Cost?

Third party insurance or sliding fees cover payment

Contact Us

To receive more information, call or visit us at:

Clinton County Health Department

Health Services Unit

133 Margaret Street

Plattsburgh, NY 12901

Tel: (518) 565-4848