NARRATIVE: On July 2, 2018 the Clinton County Sheriff's Office received a complaint of a one car accident off the road on Quarry Road in the Town of Plattsburgh and the vehicle was attempting to leave the scene. Sheriff's Deputies canvassed the area after learning the vehicle had left the scene and were able to locate the vehicle in a parking lot on Military Turnpike. Upon investigation, the driver was allegedly found to not have a valid license and was allegedly operating the vehicle while under the influence of drugs. The Clinton County Sheriff's Office also utilized their Drug Recognition Expert for this case.

DISPOSITION The defendant was processed at the Clinton County Sheriff's Office and then arraigned in the Town of Plattsburgh Court. The defendant was remanded to Clinton County Correctional facility in lieu of $500 cash/$1000 bond to reappear in the Town of Plattsburgh Court on a later date.
