

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On Saturday January 16, 2010 the Clinton County Sheriff's Department arrested a local man for violating the terms of an order of protection – for the second time.

Sheriff's deputies arrested 22-year-old Christopher Rhinehart of Rouses Point and charged him with one felony count of aggravated criminal contempt and one misdemeanor count of aggravated harassment.

Rhinehart is accused of calling an ex-girlfriend in violation of a no-contact order of protection. Rhinehart's arrest comes just weeks after he was released from Clinton County Jail where he served a one-year term for a similar offense.

Rhinehart was taken into custody by Sheriffs Deputies and arraigned in Rouses Point Village Court. Rhinehart was sent to the Clinton County Jail for lack of $2,500 cash bail or $5,000 bond. He is scheduled to re-appear in Rouses Point Village court on January 21, 2010.
