Dear Students,

On Tuesday, March 19, 2019, we would like you to join us for the 15th Annual Youth Leadership Conference.

This year's quote is:

“Leadership is practiced not so much in words as in attitude and in actions”
- Harold Geneen

You are one of 15 students who have been selected by your school to participate in this exciting event. Please take a few minutes to choose the workshops that interest you most and complete the registration form on the back of this brochure. Return your completed registration form to your school representative.

Thank You!
2019 Youth Leadership Planning Committee

Joel Hilchey

Joel Hilchey teaches sustainability at McMaster University, and he speaks at events across North America about leadership, success, and what holds people back. You'll probably remember him as the speaker who plays with mousetraps, but his real skill is helping people change the world.

Tom Bull

A dynamic, entertaining, and empowering speaker, Tom Bull has provided presentations, workshops, and keynotes throughout the Northeast region and down the east coast for the past 15 years. Tom is a firm believer “when the tide rises, all ships rise with it”, when a community and its members are empowered, uplifted, and strengthened, we all benefit.

A. College Application Process

Where do I begin? What should I expect? This workshop is designed to help clarify the college application process for those who have not yet applied. Make your first impression count at the college of your dreams.

(Recommended for Sophomores and Juniors)

Presented By: Jessica Spurdis
Admissions Advisor, SUNY Plattsburgh

B. Concurrent Enrollment (CAP Courses)

Concurrent partnerships provide high school students the opportunity to take college credit-bearing courses that are taught in their high schools. This workshop will answer all your questions about CAP courses. How can CAP courses benefit you? What are the course possibilities? How do you transfer these credits to your college?

Presented By: John Petro
Clinton Community College

**Your first workshop choice must be from A-E****

C. Apprenticeship: The Other College

No College, No Problem! College isn't the only path to success! This workshop will explore alternative options for after high school. Learn about the various opportunities the North Country has to offer.

Presented By: Greg Hart
Regional Director,
Workforce Development Institute

D. The Invisible Threat

The Internet, Facebook, Twitter, and Snapchat allow us access to information, ways to express ourselves, and interaction with people all over the world. However, online actions have offline consequences, whether they stem from revealing too much, interacting with online predators, sexting or cyberbullying. This presentation includes video narratives of teens that have experienced the consequences of engaging in risky Internet behavior.

Presented By: Dave DeCelle
Center for Exploited and Missing Children

E. Moving Ideas Forward

Create a plan and learn how to implement it in this interactive session. Everyone leaves with an idea for a real project in their school or community, and a process they can use to turn any idea into action.

Keynote Speaker

F. Eat Healthy and Stay Fit: Piece of Cake!

When you are running from class to after school activities it can be really hard to make sure you are staying healthy. Sometimes it's as easy as being able to understand what's in the food you are eating and carving out a little time for exercise. Whether you are an athlete, musician, avid reader, or video game expert, your body needs healthy food and exercise to achieve top performance.

Presented By: Scott Cutaiar
Jump Camp Director

G. Winning Interviews

One of the biggest fears that a job or college candidate harbors is the interview. Learn how to present your best qualities with confidence while leaving your nerves and weaknesses behind.

Presented By: E.T.S. Employment Agency

H. Man vs. Adirondacks

Want to build on your knowledge of how to survive in the Adirondacks? Come learn from an Environmental Crime Investigator and Adirondack 46er how to stay safe and enjoy the Adirondacks while also preserving them.

Presented By: Lt. Kenneth Bruno
Investigator, Bureau of Environmental Crime

I. Team Building: The Key to Success

Come participate in teambuilding games that promote cooperation, effective communication, and creative problem solving. Meet people and make new friends.

Presented By: Dave Manney
Beekmantown High School

J. Feeling Fried from Stress?

Do you feel like you are always racing against time to get everything done? Juggling the responsibilities of school, work, sports, and clubs can leave you feeling fried. This workshop will help you evaluate your priorities, motivation, and goals along with the stress that comes with them.

Presented By: Tom Bull
Peru Central School

To Register:

Please indicate your choices on the back of this page and return to your school representative. Your first workshop choice MUST be from Workshops A-E.
